From the elders

Greetings church family. We pray you are all safe and well in your homes and being especially careful to adhere to the CDC guidelines if you must venture out. During this historic time, it's natural to be fearful and anxious. Please remember, God loves you and He is in control. Psalm 91:3-4 says "For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and

Your own service

How do you have your own worship service at home? Do the same things when we are together:

- Read the Bible.
- Pray.
- Listen to Ty's sermon.
- Have communion.
- Sing.

We should also give as we have prospered, and fellowship and exhort one another — from a distance for now. Call a brother or sister in Christ and encourage them!

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul makes its boast in the LORD; let the humble hear and be glad. Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together! I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.

Psalm 34:1-4

Are you still praising Him?

under his wings you will find refuge.”

We encourage everyone to keep trusting in God, pray often, stay in His word, and stay in touch with others by electronic means. We love you all and are looking forward to being able to gather in person again.

For the elders,

Jim

Remember Him

Be sure to remember Jesus' sacrifice by sharing in communion each Sunday. Let one of the elders know if you need communion supplies. “They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Acts 2:42

Goings On

From the people that are studying the progress of the pandemic, we are learning that staying at home and social distancing are making a difference! We know it is difficult, but keep it up. If you are feeling lonely, calling someone else and helping them with their loneliness will strengthen you. And remember, it is okay to go for a walk, as long as you maintain social

Giving

Thank you for continuing to give! We appreciate your faithfulness in this. You can mail your contribution to the church at P.O. Box 291 in Rolla, drop it by the church building, or use our secure online giving on our church website.

Contribution last Sunday from online giving, those dropped off at the building, and mailed in: $6,780.79!

The new building

Curtis says that work on the new building continues. All framing is complete, and they are starting on the sheetrock. New electric service has been run to our current building, so we can remove an electric pole at the end of the project. Please continue to pray for safety for all these workers!
