From the elders

"Shelter in place" - unless you have served in the military, this is likely a relatively new term to you. Almost all of America is living this new lifestyle for the first time. Thankfully, as followers of Jesus Christ, we already had a "shelter" in place long before the coronavirus ever appeared on the scene. Jesus is our shelter, especially in a time of storm. Psalm 46 begins with these words, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in Spring is in the air!

Remember that Megan Bruno's virtual wedding shower is Sunday at 2:00 p.m. Katie and Josh will be married soon, with a reception scheduled on August 8.

Thanks, Cathy!

Dave Roberts wrote a great article about Day School and Cathy Cassidy's many years of service. Wonderful work, Cathy! And we know that Allison Bruno and Tanna Roberts will continue the great work of Day School in the coming school year!

Let us know; let us press on to know the Lord; his going out is sure as the dawn; he will come to us as the showers, as the spring rains that water the earth.

Hosea 6:3

Enjoy the beauty of springtime!

trouble. Therefore, we will not fear..."

No matter what physical, emotional, or spiritual struggles we are going through, God is always the best source of shelter and strength. Never doubt that He is in control! Let's seek to strengthen our faith in the only true shelter this world has to offer.

For the elders,

Andy

Special Prayers

Jeremy Graber broke his collar bone and may have surgery this coming week. Sherryl Hartley is having trouble with her veins in her feet and legs. Mike McKelvey is planning to move to his own apartment soon. Cathy Cassidy's mother, Mary Ann Pinski, was doing better at last

Goings On

Much of the sheetrock is completed in the new facility. Great job, David and Jeremiah Mead! There are also some new concrete pillars for parking lot light poles, so be careful when you drive through the church parking lot.

Giving

We appreciate your faithfulness in giving. You can mail your contribution to the church at P.O. Box 291 in Rolla, drop it by the church building, or use our secure online giving.

Contribution last Sunday from online giving, those dropped off at the building, and mailed in: $3,985, with an additional $2,874 in building donations.

The elders have been discussing several considerations as we begin thinking about eventually getting to meet together again. We hope it is soon, but we want everyone to be safe. Special building cleaning, social distancing,

COVID-19 Updates

There are discussions of reopening businesses and organizations in Missouri in an economic recovery phase. However, the state of emergency has been extended through June 15. See the Governor's latest information on his website and follow the latest on our COVID-19 page. The situation appears to be improving, but please continue to be safe!
